CONSTITUTION
THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
BLACK ALUMNI SOCIETY

Article I - Name

The name of this organization is The Ohio State University Black Alumni Society, hereafter referred to as the Society.

Article II - Object

This Society is formed to promote the advancement of the best interests of The Ohio State University Black Alumni Society by providing fellowship and the furtherance of professional relationships among the alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends of the Society. It shall be an integral part of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, Inc., hereafter referred to as the Association, the official alumni organization of The Ohio State University. The Society will also promote and support the mission of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, Inc.

Article III - Membership and Dues

Section 1: All persons who hold degrees awarded by the University including associates, bachelor, graduate, professional and honorary degrees, or are medical resident graduates from The Ohio State University who were a part of/member of/or identified with African or Black Alumni, are eligible for membership in the Society and may hold office and vote upon matters of the Society.

Section 2: Such non-alumni who by their interest and activity have distinguished themselves by their work for the Society may be entitled to honorary membership by special action of the Board of Governors of the Society. Honorary members may not hold office but are eligible to vote on matters of the Society as determined by the Board of Governors of the Society of the Society.

Section 3: Such non-alumni who express an interest in membership in the Society may be granted associate membership in the Society. Associate members may not hold office but are eligible to vote on matters of the Society as determined by the Board of Governors of the Society.

Section 4: Dues may be as established by the Board of Governors

Section 5: Membership in good standing is defined as having membership dues paid for the current year.

Article IV - Officers
Section 1: The officers of the Society shall consist of President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, all of whom must be Active Members of the Association and current with Society dues.

Section 2: The duties of the officers shall be such as are generally exercised by such officers, and such as may be assigned to them respectively by the Board of Governors from time to time.

Article V - Duties of Officers

Section 1: President: The President shall preside at all meetings of the Society, and shall be chairperson of the Board of Governors and an ex officio member of all committees.

Section 2: Vice President: In the absence or disability of the President, or at the request of the President, the Vice President shall perform the duties of the President. If the office of President becomes vacant, the Vice President shall become President for the unexpired term. The Vice President shall serve as the Chair of the Meetings and Programs Committee.

Section 3: Secretary: The Secretary shall have the custody of the names and addresses of the alumni in the area provided by the Association. The Secretary shall record all changes, notifying immediately the Association of any additions or corrections to the list. The Society shall not release the list for political, personal or commercial purposes. Any person violating this policy is subject to expulsion from office by the Board of Directors of the Association, Inc. Release of the list shall be made only on approval of the Association, subject to the constitution of the Association. The Secretary shall serve as the Chair of the Membership Committee.

The Secretary shall send out all notices of meetings and shall send reports of all meetings and activities of the Society to the Association. The Secretary shall assist the President of the Society.

Section 4: Treasurer: The Treasurer shall supervise all receipts and expenditures and shall be the ex officio member of the Meetings and Programs Committee in charge of handling financial arrangements for the meetings. As requested, the Treasurer shall complete and submit annual financial forms to the Association. Additionally, he or she shall complete and submit any documents that may be required by the Internal Revenue Service. The Treasurer is required to provide monthly report of all expenses and balances. If unable to provide, co-Treasurer or President is to fulfill these duties.

Article VI - Board of Governors

Section 1: Board of Governors, all of whom must be Active Members of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, Inc. and Active Members of the Society, shall consist of:

a. The above-named officers.
b. The immediate past president.
c. Four to eight members at large elected to the board by the membership of the Society as outlined in Article IX.
d. The President/CEO of the Association, or the President/CEO's designee, as an ex officio, without a vote.

e. The Intercultural Specialist for Black Student Initiatives of the Ohio State University’s Office of Student Life Multicultural Center as an ex officio, without a vote.

f. Student(s) representative(s) selected by the board to serve as an ex officio voting member.

Section 2: The Board of Governors shall have full power to fill all vacancies.

Section 3: The governance of the Society and the direction of its activities shall be vested in the Board of Governors.

Section 4: A meeting of the Board of Governors must be called by the President of the Society upon written request of at least three members of the Board of Governors.

Section 5: The Board of Governors shall hold two meetings per year and others at the discretion of the President.

Article VII - Membership Meetings

Section 1: At least one member meeting must be held each year. Failure to comply with this provision shall make the Society charter subject to revocation by the Association.

Section 2: There shall be such other meetings each year as the President, with the approval of the Board of Governors of the Society, deem desirable.

Section 3: The President of the Society must call a membership meeting upon the written request of five percent of the members of the Society. Upon failure of the President to call such a meeting within ten days of such request, the meeting may be called by any other officer or member of the Board of Governors, or by the petitioning members. In such instance, the President/CEO of the Association shall be notified, and the President/CEO shall send due notice of the time, place and purpose of the meeting to all members of the Society.

Section 4: Where this constitution fails to provide authority for procedure, Robert’s Rules of Order shall be used.

Article VIII – Committees

Section 1: The President of the Society shall appoint the following standing committees with the approval of the Board of Governors:

a. Meetings and Programs: It shall be the function of this committee to organize the meetings of the Society; plan the program; obtain the publicity for them; and to get notification by mail, electronic means or phone, to the alumni of the Society.

b. Membership: It shall be the duty of this committee to check the names of all eligible for membership with the President/CEO/representative of the Association and to use all means possible to encourage non-members to do their share in furthering the interests of The Ohio State University by joining The Ohio State University African American Alumni Society. The committee will also encourage Active Membership in the Association, whenever possible.

Section 2: The President of the Society, with the approval of the Board of Governors, shall appoint such additional committees as in the President's judgment the interests of the Society may require, and may prescribe the duties of such committees.

Article IX – Elections

Members of the Board of Governors shall be elected every other year at the annual meeting and shall hold office until their successors have been qualified and elected. The terms will be staggered. Six board members shall be elected and consist of 3 for two-year terms, and 3 for four-year terms. Elections will be held at the bi-annual meeting to replace board members whose terms have expired. The Board of Governors of the Society will select the aforementioned officers. In the event that an officer or board member fails to meet their prescribed duties they may be asked to resign or replaced by vote of the executive board. Their replacement will be open to a nomination and subsequent vote by the Board of Governors.

Article X - Bylaws

The Society is permitted to establish bylaws at any regular board meeting of the Society, a quorum being present, by a two-third vote of all board members present, provided that notice of such proposed bylaw(s) shall have been communicated via mail or electronic means to each board member at least ten days before such meeting. No amendment or addition to the bylaws can be made which is not in harmony with the Society constitution or is contrary to the constitution of the Association.

Article XI - Adoption

This constitution shall be officially adopted upon its approval by a majority vote of the members of the Society in attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Society. It shall take effect upon the granting of the charter of the Board of Directors of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, Inc., authorizing its functioning as one of the official alumni constituent societies of The Ohio State University.

Article XII - Amendments

This constitution may be amended by a majority vote of the total votes cast in a manner decided upon by the Board of Governors of the Society. No amendments shall take effect until duly approved by the Board of Directors of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, Inc.
