

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Pay it Forward Award for Volunteerism

The Ohio State University alumni groups are encouraged to identify and nominate one worthy individual who, through their service and achievements as a club or society leader, goes above and beyond to support and advance the goals and objectives outlined within the strategic plan of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, Inc. The nominee must be a current or past club/society leader and a sustaining or life member of the OSUAA. Each group may nominate one individual per year. Up to five club and five society leaders may be selected each year for this award. Please consider the following areas when submitting your nomination:

- Leadership and service to OSU and the alumni group
- Initiatives created under this individual's leadership
- Actions taken above and beyond their duties as a member or officer
- Significant contributions made to the alumni group
- Length of time serving on the board or committee of the alumni group
